Caldwell, Texas 77836

Telephone:

(409) 567-3141

Occupation: Accounting Assistant

Children: Tony-15, Robert-12, Mark-11, Daniel-7

Highlights: The former Norma Borne, after graduation from Bishop Byrne, hied off to Dominican College in Houston, where she studied art. She also studied Harold, Bob and James, but after receiving her bachelor degree, promptly rejected it by marrying Paul in 1969.

True to her well-earned reputation as a social climber, as soon as she crossed the Pt. Arthur city limits, Norma began telling one and all she went to Archbishop Byrne High School, and on occasion was even nervy enough to call it Cardinal Byrne. To her credit she has yet to identify her alma mater as Pope Byrne High, but stay tuned.

Norma has left her mark wherever she has gone. Not too long after her departure, Dominican College closed its doors forever. It was followed by Bishop Byrne, of course. After a few years in New Braunfels, that beautiful Texas town is known as Used Braunfels. She now lives in Caldwell with her four sons, although how much longer it will be called "well" is open to question.

Upon returning to single life, Norma elected not to be Borne again: She remains Norma Curda.

She is now an Incremental Monetary Outflow specialist with the Research Foundation at Texas A & M University, dealing in such matters as the Aggie who refused to take personal checks but would always accept a snobbish Hungarian.

Highlights: For the past 20 years, my life has been very full and rewarding. I have 3 children who keep me on the go constantly. I also work full time as a Property Management Accountant for First Mortgage Investment. I have lived in the Bridge City area for the past 8 years. Living first on 10 acres of land in a house that my husband and I built ourselves. We enjoyed raising chickens, ducks, horses, dogs, rabbits and kids. Within the last year, we bought an older home located on Cow Bayou, a dream come true. The rewarding aspect of my life has been my association with our Church. I have been involved with our CCD program for the past 5 years. Also, 3 years ago, I became a Eucharist Minister. Right now Bill and I are involved with sponsoring engaged couples from our parish. This has been very helpful and rewarding to our marriage as well. My hobbies include fishing, boating, gardening, wallpapering, reading and dancing.
